

JOHN BAILEY

John Bailey is highly qualified and he has extensive experience. He has worked as an educator (teacher, administrator & special education consultant) for nearly 30 years. John has worked in many schools in a range of different contexts - in Australia, the UK, Canada and China. His qualifications (from UWA) include an M.Ed, B.Ed and B.A. He provides professional development to schools, DET, AISWA & CEO and has worked with over 1,000 families in WA. John presents widely at workshops and conferences at local, state, national and international level. He has the practical experience, the resources and the knowledge to make a difference to you, your staff, to your parents and to your children.

"Every young child has the right to the care (at home and in care) which offers them the greatest chance of achieving to their full potential - socially, emotionally and intellectually."
