

JOHN BAILEY

John Bailey is highly qualified and has extensive experience as an educator (teacher, administrator & education consultant). He has worked in the field of gifted education for 30 years in many schools and in a range of different contexts - in Australia, the UK, Canada and China. His qualifications (from UWA) include an M.Ed, B.Ed and B.A. John spent 12 months at Cambridge University as a visiting scholar researching gifted education. John provides professional development to schools, to the DET, CEO and AISWA and he has worked with over 1,000 families in WA. He has had a long and significant association with the Gifted and Talented Children's Association of WA. John presents widely at workshops and conferences at local, state, national and international level. He has the practical experience, the resources and the knowledge to make a difference to you and to your children.

"Every child has the right to the education (at home, in day-care and at school) which offers them the greatest chance of achieving to their full potential - socially, emotionally and intellectually."
